□ Why Travelers Choose Air France

Air France is a well-established international airline offering elegant service, modern aircraft, and extensive route coverage across Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Americas. Whether you're flying on a budget or booking premium cabin experiences, this independent guide walks you through what you should know when booking, managing, or adjusting your trip in 2025.

□ Booking Your Trip

Ways to Reserve Your Seat:

- Head to airfrance.com
- Use the airline's mobile application
- Visit a local travel agency
- Book through trusted online platforms

Travel Pro Tips:

- Fares often drop mid-week — check prices on Tuesdays and Wednesdays
- Mix cabin classes (e.g., Premium one way, Economy return) to reduce overall fare
- Join their frequent flyer program to unlock occasional deals on upgrades and baggage

Understanding Your Fare:

Each ticket type offers different levels of flexibility:

- Light: No checked bags, least flexible
- Standard: Includes 1 bag, changeable with a fee
- Flex: Offers refund and change options

- Premium Economy, Business, First Class: Come with additional services and baggage

□ Modifying a Booking

Need to change your dates or time? Most tickets (except the lowest tier) allow edits for a fee. Here's what you need to know:

- Online adjustments can be made up to 3 hours before takeoff
- For last-minute help, reach out via +1-844-498-7378
- Be prepared to pay a difference in fare if applicable

□ Tip: Shifting your travel by just 1 day can sometimes lower the new fare — always compare before confirming.

□ Cancelling a Ticket

U.S. regulations allow passengers to cancel within 24 hours of booking (if flight is at least 7 days away).

Beyond that, your refund rights depend on the fare type:

- Light/Standard: Usually non-refundable
 - Flex, Premium, Business: More forgiving refund policies
 - Airline disruptions: Full refunds or alternate flights are usually provided

□ Seats & Cabin Enhancements

Seat choices vary based on what you booked. Exit rows, front-of-cabin options, and extra legroom are often available for a small charge unless you're in a higher cabin class.
